

Are you a Criminal Justice Agency Challenged by COVID-19?

We understand you are expected to deliver more with fewer resources. Let us help you sort through your challenges and make data-driven decisions with confidence.

We can support you during COVID-19 response in a variety of ways, including:

- Documenting agency response to COVID-19
- Evaluating agency response to COVID-19
- Leadership/crisis management coaching
- Policy and data analysis to support emergency response planning
- Needs assessment of programs, communities, and populations
- Implementation support for short- and long-term emergency response strategies
- Stakeholder management that promotes collaboration and data sharing
- Resource inventory development to highlight assets and gaps
- Referral and partnership development for added support
- Grant research
- Grant writing

We will:

 Deliver Trauma-Informed and Culturally-Responsive Services	 Leverage Assets and Minimize Burden on Staff	 Employ Strengths-Based Approaches	 Build your Capacity for Continuous Improvement
 Share and Utilize Best Practices	 Conduct Reliable and Secure Mixed-Methods Data Analysis	 Adapt in Real-Time based on Dynamic and Rapidly Changing Needs	 Provide Actionable and Feasible Recommendations

Why RDA consultants are useful during crisis:

- We are experienced leaders of problem solving
- We bring a cross-systems lens that enhances collaboration and efficiencies
- We share and utilize our knowledge of how other jurisdictions are addressing similar issues
- We have a robust inventory of potential approaches and strategies to accelerate progress
- We bring experience facilitating complex planning across multiple stakeholders
- We guide agencies through building efficiencies with fewer resources

With RDA, you can expect:

